

A Place In Time

Little Scraps of News
April 2010 Vol. 3

Aloha Fellow Crafters,

We want to thank Jan Kruger for all the fun classes she shared with us. Jan will be returning to the mainland and will create more projects for us to enjoy on her next winter trip back to our islands.

I will be away for a little more than a week, but Bill will be at the store as usual. Bill said he wanted to have some fun and play a Trivia game with our Pogs while I am away.

Well, OK, Bill just loves Trivia. So here is how the game works; the game will start on Wednesday, April 28th through Wednesday, May 5th. You will have to answer correctly a trivia question, if answered correctly you get to pull a Pog for a discount. The Pog can be used for your next purchase as long as it is used before or on the day I return on May 5th. You can play as many times as you want or until the questions run out, as long as you answer the question correctly. You can only win and use one Pog at a time per customer. So, may your mind be expanded with trivia knowledge and your hands busy with paper crafting.

Mother's Day is on second Sunday where we normally stay open till 5:00 pm. On Mother's Day we will stay open till 4:00 pm so we may enjoy dinner with family.

Our ALL DAY Workshop is proving to be quality time well spent. Fran Kawakami has adapted a popular flip type mini journal to fit a 12x12 page. Each page designed with beautiful journaling. Debbie West had designed a wonderful hand bound journal with it's own pocket and ribbon tie. I have fiddled and fussed with the large specialty paper to create a hand clutch which you can adapt to just about any paper and occasion. With the left over paper you will create a little gift bag with ribbon handles, great when you need something fast and easy to present a little gift. With the fourth project we will do some light metal work to create a wonderful keepsake/gift.
