

Little Scraps of News March 2010 Vol. 1

Aloha Fellow Crafters,

We hope you all fared well during our Tsunami Alert. Bill and I had two different kinds of day. The Scrapper's Jam was held and I was off to Koolau Golf for the event an hour later than my planned departure. Bill stayed close to home just in case.

I was having a grand time at the Scrapper's Jam; visiting, eating, conducting a Make and Take project while Bill said Kailua town was void of all cars and it was like being in the Twilight Zone. Bill thought he was the only retail store open for business. After the 'All Clear' signal one person came in until after the Scrapper's Jam when a bunch more people stopped by to shop. It was a good day for us and we thank you for the support.

ARRIVALS: We were able to get a few more ATC Tins like the band-aid tins; the blanks and blue bird designed. The dragon paper is back also, it sold within 24 hours of its introduction, so most of you did not have the opportunity to acquire one or two sheets of this gorgeous double sided paper. Sizzix came in with Bigz Butterfly and Vine w/Leaves, the Sizzlit Butterfly #12, Deco strips Cherry Blossom Branch, Swirly, Birds & Branches, Impressions Pads, Embossing Folders; Birds, Flowers and Branches set, Hello Friends Set, Best Friends Sets and Thank You Sets.

Our Grand Paper Hat Maker Phyllis is on the fast track and already created two more hats to show you. She is so excited about the hats that she made a few hats out of the scrap pieces of paper for the Well you got to see it to believe it.

The Altered Art Adventure workshop by Debbie West and Pam Yee was a blast. I learned a few more techniques. I loved the warm-up activity which taught me that I still think too much in the box and everything has to be measured out. NOT! There is so much more to learn and enjoy. All the participants in the workshop were very, very creative, beginners to skilled crafters.

We have a full month of classes and activities to choose from. Pam Yee is back in town and will be teaching a few classes At A Place In Time. So put on your Fun and Creativity Hat and join us.
