

Little Scraps of News
March 2011 Vol. 2

Aloha Fellow Crafters,

Scrapper's Jam was a blast as always; the people, the food, and the gorgeous scenery you never get tired of. This year we did two Make and Take projects; one making a mini journal with the matchbox cover and the second was a motion greeting card. Our long clear tubes were a very big hit with people sharing thoughts of little Easter gifts, birthday party favors and graduation mini gifts instead of a lei.

Did you see Vote for Hawaii's Best in the Star-Advertiser? We would appreciate your vote for A Place In Time in the Retail Section, BEST CRAFT STORE category, the deadline is April 6, 2011.

Wow, the Basic Grey Hello Luscious and Life of The Party designs are in! Great double sided color and spirited print designs. We have customers picking 2-3 sheets at a time to satisfy their need to create! We do have a few of the 2 Page Layout Kits and Greeting Card Making kits. The new Sizzix Embossing folders came in and as soon as a sample project was posted, the designs were snapped up. There are a few folders we have not had time to create with and are still available.

We have a new Hibiscus Corner Border Stencil design which keeps selling out as soon as we have them on display. In fact, that will be the free stencil I will give to my students taking my Stencil Embossing class Wednesday. Come on in and check out the new design.

Be sure to check on Bill's blog: <http://ptcraftshop.blogspot.com/>.

Annual EASTER EGG HUNT

Time: 11:00 am to 4:00 pm

Our Dragon eggs were a big hit last year and the hardest ones to find. Bill gets the biggest kick watching people look for the eggs. We have some fun crafty prizes to delight you. Make sure you are informed of the rules before you start hunting for that special egg. Remember this is a fun egg hunt for adults 18 yrs and older, because adults need to have a little fun too.
